

Embassy of Greece
The Ambassador

Dear graduates of the Medical School,
Honorable Doctors,

Today is a big day for you! You worked hard; you fought and succeeded in "the School of the Schools", the School of Hippocrates! Now the world outside is waiting for you, to comfort people, to heal them, to save them, to discover new methods and ways that will ease their pain.

You deserve warm congratulations for your success! Congratulations, however, are also in order, to your University, to your professors who imparted their knowledge to you, but also to your families and friends who have stood by you, helping you achieve your goals.

So, Honorable Doctors, carry out the Hippocratic Oath and "you will gain forever reputation amongst all, for your life and for your art".

And to the Greek graduates, my fellow citizens: Εύγε! Μας κάνετε υπερήφανους!

Alexios Marios Lyberopoulos
